

A call for help from the Mitchell Plateau

The original page which was at this address was a copy of a letter from someone at the Kandiwal Community on the Mitchell Plateau appealing for help in a dispute with the Western Australian government. I published that letter in good faith as I believed that the local people deserved to be heard.

At the request of the community, that letter has now been removed.