

Bird List: Mitchell Plateau No. 2: May-June 1997

This was not a specialist birdwatching trip. The list is courtesy of Jessica Wilson, one of the participants on the trip who had a particular interest in birds. On a specialist birdwatching trip, you would undoubtedly see many more.

Pied Cormorant	Willie Wagtail
Australasian Grebe	Leaden Flycatcher
White-faced Heron	Restless Flycatcher
Black Bittern	Magpie Lark
Brolga	Spangled Drongo
Black-fronted Dotterel	Great Bowerbird
Whistling Kite	Black-faced Cuckoo-shrike
Wedge-tailed Eagle	White-bellied Cuckoo-shrike
Brown Goshawk	Varied Triller
Peregrine Falcon	White-Breasted Woodswallow
Peaceful Dove	Little Woodswallow
Emerald Dove	Pied Butcherbird
White-quilled Rock-pigeon	Double-barred finch
Red-tailed Black-cockatoo	Long-tailed Finch
Little Corella	Mistletoe Bird
Sulphur-crested Cockatoo
Rainbow Lorikeet
Red-winged Parrot
Pheasant Coucal
Tawny Frogmouth
Spotted Nightjar
Blue-winged Kookaburra
Red-backed Kingfisher
Rainbow Bee-eater
Variegated Fairy-wren
Red-backed Fairy-wren (female)
Black Grasswren
Striated Pardalote
Silver-crowned Friarbird
Little Friarbird
White-lined Honeyeater
Yellow-tinted Honeyeater
White-throated Honeyeater
Brown Honeyeater
Bar-breasted Honeyeater
Banded Honeyeater
Jacky Winter
Sandstone Shrike-thrush
Grey Shrike-thrush
Rufous Whistler
Northern Fantail
Grey Fantail	